

DevComo Sponsorship

DevComo is a local monthly meeting of software developers, technologists and community leaders focused on the art and practice of software development and its applications in business and society.

DevComo has been growing rapidly! Over the last year, attendance has doubled on average. Support is needed in order to maintain our current growth. If you or your company would like to contribute to the DevComo community then sponsoring a meetup is a great option. If you are interested in sponsoring a meetup, please fill out our sponsorship form or email contact@devcomo.org.

Sponsor will receive

- Official recognition in the Meetup notice.
- A verbal thank you for the sponsor in the meeting.
- Opportunity to present swag/business cards at the meeting.
- Optional 5-minute announcement before the main talk.

Sponsorship Expectations

- Provide food for the meetup (~20 people)
 - To accommodate a range of dietary restrictions we ask that at least one vegetarian option and one non-pork option be provided.
- Provide drinks for the meetup (Non alcoholic)

Sponsorship costs approximately $200

Attendee Profile

- Locally employed developers
- Computer Science Professionals / students
- Community Leaders